SEASON SCHEDULE

USHPIZIN OCTOBER 15, 2016

Israel 2005 (90 min)

Set in contemporary Jerusalem during Succot, USHPIZIN refers to the unexpected guests who show up in answer to a poor childless couple's prayers for a miracle. Miracles become trials, and what follows is a heartwarming drama, dryly funny and rich with spiritual overtones. USHPIZIN has been programmed to coincide with Succot.

A BORROWED IDENTITY NOVEMBER 12, 2016

Israel 2015 (105 min) (originally released under the title, "Dancing Arabs")

A gifted Palestinian-Israeli student enrolls in a prestigious boarding school in Jerusalem, where he struggles with issues of language, culture, and identity. Friendships with two Jewish teens develop, and as his life becomes more complicated, he has reasons to take on a new identity - that of his Jewish friend! With a focus on both families and their points of view, this is a call for dialogue and peace, and will surely evoke a lively discussion afterward.

THE INFIDEL DECEMBER 10, 2016

United Kingdom 2010 (105 min)

Cultures cross in this slapstick comedy when a devoted Muslim family man discovers that he was adopted at birth, and that his real name is Solly Shimshillewitz. After discovering that he was born to a Jewish mother, he experiences a hilarious identity crisis when he seeks the advice of a very unorthodox cab driver - this crash course in Judaism is more quirky than kosher!
