MR. GAGA: A TRUE STORY OF LOVE & DANCE OCTOBER 14, 2017 Israel 2015 (115 min)

We all know Lady Gaga, now meet Mr. Gaga! Here, Gaga refers to the dramatic movement language developed by choreographer Ohad Naharin of Tel Aviv's Batsheva Dance Company. Using Gaga, which relies on concepts and interpretations instead of steps and positions, Naharin has transformed the world of dance. Thrilling performances and rehearsal footage packs this documentary.

PHOENIX NOVEMBER 18, 2017 Germany 2014 (98 min)

After surviving disfiguring wounds in the concentration camps, Nelly undergoes facial reconstruction and returns to the rubble of post-WWII Berlin in search of her ex-husband. She finds him working in the Phoenix nightclub, and, as she is now unrecognizable, she sets out to determine whether he may have betrayed her to the Nazis. A noir drama of deceit and seduction, Phoenix has been described as a 'post-war masterwork by way of Vertigo.'

MARY & MAX DECEMBER 9, 2017 Australia 2009 (92 min)

Mary and Max are two unlikely friends. She is a lonely 8-year old in Australia, he is a grumpy and aging Jewish New Yorker. As pen-pals, they correspond across two continents for two decades. Viewers will recognize the voices of Phillip Seymour Hoffman and Toni Collette in this charming claymation tale, which is both poignant and hilarious.

AJAMI JANUARY 13, 2018 Israel 2009 (124 min)

Ajami is a neighborhood of Old Jaffa where Jews, Arabs, Palestinians and Christians all try to live in this violence-charged atmosphere. Five overlapping stories depict the hazards of everyday life. Vendettas, gang warfare, racketeering, drug-peddling and forbidden love are complicated by the presence of the Jewish police force.
